Review for candidacy or full accreditation and a corresponding site visit schedule is available at http://www.eatright.org/cade/programsunderreview.aspx.

The Accreditation Standards are located at www.eatright.org/cade. Any comments on substantive matters related to the quality of any of these educational programs must be sent 30 days prior to the program's scheduled site visit or by the designated review date to:
The American Dietetic Association ATTN: Ulric Chung, PhD 120 South Riverside Plaza, Suite 2000 Chicago, IL 60606

Donating Journals

Members often inquire about donating their old Journals to a good cause, but don’t know where to start. The Web site for the Health Sciences Library at the University of Buffalo provides a list of organizations that accept donations of old journals and redistribute them to developing countries, found at http://libweb.lib.buffalo.edu/dokuwiki/hslwiki/doku.php?id=book_donations. The Journal encourages our readers to take advantage of this opportunity to share our knowledge.

EDUCATIONAL EVENTS

Asian Congress of Nutrition

July 13-16, 2011, Suntec Singapore International Convention & Exhibition Centre, Suntec City, Singapore. The Singapore Nutrition and Dietetics Association will be organizing the 11th Asian Congress of Nutrition, the theme of which is “Nutritional Well-Being for a Progressive Asia—Challenges and Opportunities.” As Asia moves into the next decade of the 21st century, it is experiencing changes in infrastructure, communications, technology, and economics. The Congress provides an opportunity for nutrition scientists to exchange ideas on how to improve the nutritional status of both the Asian and global population, and also to discuss the results of research presented at the Congress. For more information, visit http://www.acn2011.com/.

International Scientific Conference on Nutraceuticals and Functional Foods

October 25-27, 2011, Hotel DoubleTree by Hilton, Košice, Slovakia. The next International Scientific Conference on Nutraceuticals and Functional Foods, Food and Function 2011, will facilitate worldwide co-operation between scientists and will focus on current advances in research on nutraceuticals and functional foods and their present and future role in maintaining health and preventing diseases. Leading scientists will present and discuss current advances in the

Tell Us Your Issue . . .

We care about the concerns of ADA members and want to hear from you. There are four easy ways to submit your issues:

- E-mail issuesmgmt@eatright.org.
- Fax 312/899-4790.
- Phone 800/877-1600 ext 5000.
- Contact your delegate.

You will receive immediate confirmation that your message has been received and action will be taken within 2 months. For more information, visit ADA’s member home page and click on Member Issues or visit www.eatright.org/issues.

Deadline for submitting material for the People and Events section is the first of the month, 3 months before the date of the issue (eg, May 1 for the August issue). Publication of an educational event is not an endorsement by the Association of the event or sponsor. Send material to: Ryan Lipscomb, Editor, Journal of the American Dietetic Association, 120 S. Riverside Plaza, Suite 2000, Chicago, IL 60606; journal@eatright.org; 312/899-4829; or fax, 312/899-4812.
research on nutraceuticals and functional foods as well as new scientific evidence that supports or questions the efficacy of already existing or prospective substances and applications. Novel compounds and controversial but scientifically solid ideas, approaches, and visions will also be presented, with particular focus on health claim substantiation and evidence-based benefits. For more information, visit www.foodandfunction.net or contact info@foodandfunction.net.

International Physical Activity, Nutrition, and Health Congress

November 23-26, 2011, Wow Kremlin Place Hotel, Antalya, Turkey. The 1st International Physical Activity, Nutrition, and Health Congress is a multidisciplinary organization where people from all different disciplines share their knowledge with the aim of improving health. Topics of the Congress include will focus on various aspects of physical activity and nutrition, including psychological well-being, special groups (children, adolescents, elderly, athletes, people with disabilities), measurement issues, chronic diseases, public health, weight management, recreation, and public policy. For more information, visit www.ipanhec2011.org.